Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

April 3, 2002 LB 1003

harmd you in any way?

SENATOR JONES: Yeah, they tore down a little fence for me.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And is that why you're against them?

SENATOR JONES: No. (Laugh)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Then why don't you think they should have representation?

SENATOR JONES: (Laugh) I guess that's all right but that's not the point here. We're talking about people representing all that resources out there.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, so now we're talking about people again. We're not really talking...

SENATOR JONES: The people I'm talking about is the commissioners.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yeah, right. I'm talking about putting something on the commission that is regulated by the commission. Do you believe taxation without representation is tyranny?

SENATOR JONES: No, I don't like that. Taxation...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You don't...you think there should be representation if you're going to be taxed, right?

SENATOR JONES: Right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you think that the body that governs people ought to be reflective of the people that are going to be governed by that body?

SENATOR JONES: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So far we're together. But when these creatures who are going to be governed by the Game and Parks Commission come in for consideration, they're not entitled to
